

Banyan Partners Honored with "Most Promising Fund Manager 2024" at East Money's Annual Private Fund Forum

December 02, 2024

On December 1, 2024, the East Money Private Fund Forum was held in Changsha, China, gathering senior executives from over 200 financial institutions. During the event, the winners of the 2024 East Money Private Fund Awards were officially announced. Banyan Partners was recognized for its outstanding performance and growing influence in the industry, receiving the prestigious "Most Promising Fund Manager 2024" award.

Over the past few years, Banyan Partners has consistently delivered strong investment results and has been honored with numerous industry awards. This latest recognition affirms the team's strong capabilities and consistent execution of our value investing strategy.

At Banyan Partners, we continue to focus on deep private equity style research in China, while maintaining a global perspective to identify overlooked opportunities. We believe China presents a compelling setup today, with world-class companies trading at attractive valuations and still underowned in global investor portfolios. This is a timely moment to diversify into China's markets through a differentiated strategy like ours.
